Taylor, Ganson & Perrin congratulates its attorneys selected as Super Lawyers. Taylor, Ganson & Perrin has been providing quality legal services to individuals, families, trusts and businesses for more than 70 years. Our areas of practice have expanded tremendously over the years, reflective of the growth and needs of our clients and the ever-evolving state of the law. Today, we counsel in the areas of tax, trusts, estates, fiduciary law, corporate and business law, probate law and litigation, real estate, domestic relations, civil litigation and criminal law. We also offer a full range of fiduciary services including trust administration and trust management.

As a client of Taylor, Ganson & Perrin, you receive the highest degree of personal attention from dedicated legal and fiduciary professionals. Personalized attention, integrity, responsiveness, expertise and commitment comprise our hallmark, resulting in legal solutions that make the most sense for you, your business and your family.

We are a mid-sized law firm with small firm attitude and large firm sophistication. That is, we are a team of talented lawyers who provide all clients with highly personalized, first-rate service at rates that are based upon sound and efficient cost measures.
